ABSTRACT:

This paper presents guidelines for IASDR07 camera ready submissions. The abstract should be 150 words of maximum length. The paper should be 6000 words of maximum length including the title, the abstract and the references.

1. THE LAYOUT OF THE PAPER

Please follow the instructions below when setting the page layout of your paper. This document shows how the camera ready paper should look like.

The paper style template is in the 'styles and formatting' menu of this word document. You may select the section of the text you like to format and choose formatting from the "Styles and formatting" list.

The paper size adopted for submitting proposals is A4 (21 x 29.7cm). You should include the conference logo in the beginning of the paper, before the paper title, align left. The text area is 16.8 cm horizontally by 22.9 cm. The standard font for the IASDR07 camera ready submissions is GillSans-Light or a sans-serif substitute. The following list presents the other components of the style:

- Paper titles are 20pt, single spacing, aligned left.
- Author names are 11pt, single spacing, aligned left.
- Contact details are 11pt, single spacing, aligned left.
- Abstracts are 11pt, 1.5 lines spacing, aligned left.
- The keywords are 11pt bold, aligned left. Please supply 3 keywords.
- Body text is 11pt, 1.5 lines spacing, aligned left.
- References are 10pt, single spacing, aligned left.

All pages should be numbered.

1. 1. SECTION HEADS

Section heads should be 2 points apart from the other text. Section heads are, at each level:

- Section head: 14pt single spacing, all caps, aligned left.
- Subsection head: 13pt single spacing, all caps, aligned left.

2. TABLES AND FIGURES
